*Pat Carterette served as director of continuing education for the Georgia Public Library Service from 2008-2011. Shortly after running in the Chicago Marathon in October 2010, she was diagnosed with terminal cancer. "Pat was a gregarious, open-hearted person who created friendships, collaborations and communities through the persistent force of her personality," her husband Bob Carterette said. "She was energetic, loving and kindhearted. For her, life was always an adventure with no bad endings." GLA and GPLS join library staff from around the state in remembering Pat's contributions to Georgia libraries through this run/walk at COMO each year. The Carterette Memorial Webinar series also was named for Pat since she co-founded those sessions.
